Painting Instructions

Background – Lightly spray the tin with acrylic matte finish. You can use the chicken wire mask or stencil to apply color. Check video for instructions on how to apply the paint.

Chicken – Base the entire chicken with Spicy Mustard. Divide the chicken into sections and basecoat with color.

Comb and Wattle – Base with Santa Red and shade with Antique Maroon. Shade again with Soft Black and highlight with French Mauve.

Head – Base with Foliage Green and shade with Avocado. Add lines with Avocado. The eye is based with Turquoise Blue and the pupil is a dot of Soft Black. The white dots are Snow White. The beak remains Spicy Mustard and shaded with Honey Brown and then again with Canyon Orange.

Chest – Base the chest with Royal Fuchsia and shade with Antique Maroon. The lines are French Mauve. The dots are Deep Midnight Blue.

Wing – Base the blue sections with Turquoise Blue and shade with Deep Midnight Blue. Add lines and dots with Snow White. The purple areas are Lavender and shaded with Deep Midnight Blue. Add dots with Foliage Green and Royal Fuchsia.

Bottom and Legs – Base with Spicy Mustard. Shade with Honey Brown and then with Canyon Orange. Shade again with Antique Maroon.

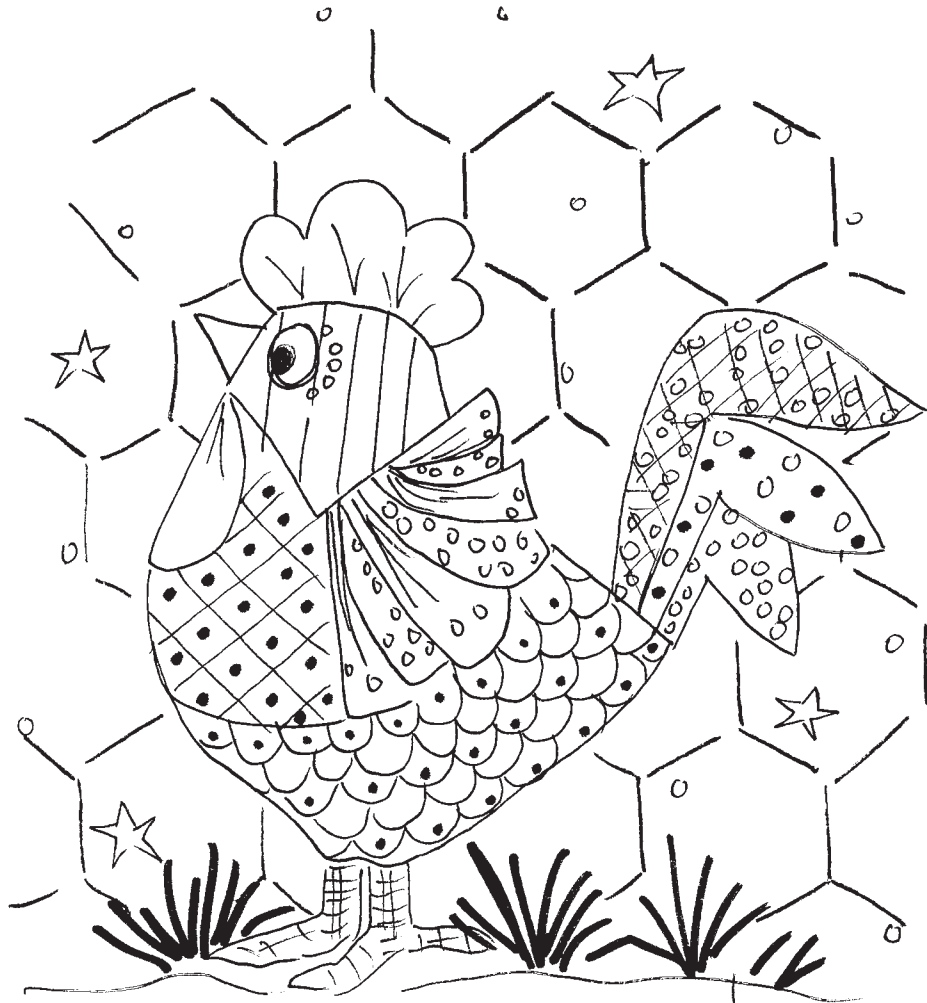

Tail Feathers – The purple feather is Purple Cow and shaded with Lavender. Add dots with Snow White. The blue feather is based with Turquoise Blue and shaded with Deep Midnight Blue. The dots are Royal Fuchsia and Snow White. The orange feather is based with Canyon Orange and shaded with Antique Maroon.

Grass – The grass is based with lines of Avocado and Foliage Green. The ground is Sable Brown.

Stars and Dots – The stars and dots are Snow White.

Finish

Add outlines and details with a permanent ink pen. Spray with acrylic matte finish. Add bow and/or raffia on handle if desired.
